

When night falls...

George Town's nocturnal serenity is captured by Mark Hall who spent a year photographing the city's heritage by streetlight. Shadows and light cast a magical spell over crumbling buildings, silent shophouses and hawker stalls.

Photography by Mark Hall
www.image-hall.com

- 1 Close-up of the George Town Dispensary on Lebuh Pantai (Beach Street).
- 2 Lebuh Armenian (Armenian Street) at dusk.
- 3 Traditional Chinese tea stall along Lebuh Cintra.

4 An old fashioned street light marks the junction of Lebu Pantai (Beach Street) and Lebu Gereja (Church Street).

4

5

7

5 Time to relax. A man unwinds in his home at the end of the day.

6 Flower stalls along Jalan Mesjid Kapitan Keling (Pitt Street).

7 A roadside shopowner waits for customers along Jalan Macalister.

6

8 The neighbourhood roti man stops for a breather.

9 Lanterns outside the Khoo Kongsi.

10 A puppet show takes place on Gat Lebeh Aceh during the Hungry Ghost Month.

